

David Furst was first elected to the LARPD Board in 2002, serving until 2010, and he was re-elected in 2014. He is a former university professor, having taught Sport Psychology, Sport Sociology, fitness and swimming among other courses. A former elite distance runner, David now enjoys hiking and bicycling. Since moving to Livermore in 1994, he has volunteered with a number of groups such as the Tri-Valley Conservancy, the Pedrozzi Foundation and Friends of the Vineyards. He is an advocate for trails and open space.

- Ethics Training Certificate of Completion