

Maryalice Faltings was first elected to the LARPD Board of Directors in 1994. She has volunteered at various LARPD events, taught a performing class for the ESS program, is a park user and takes classes with the District. Maryalice is now retired from a background in parks and recreation, historic preservation and church administration. She enjoys history, theater, traveling and reading. Maryalice has been a Livermore resident since 1992.

- Ethics Training Certificate of Completion